

Lunenburg Community Centre – COVID-19 Terms & Conditions

Effective July 23, 2020 until further notice

Welcome back to the Lunenburg Community Centre! We are excited to begin with a partial re-opening of our facility. Please review all of the facility COVID-19 terms and conditions, which are in place to keep you, our community and our staff safe.

The facility will be open by “appointment/booking only”. Bookings must occur one (1) business day prior to usage. To book, please call 902-634-4006.

The re-opening is dependent on information provided by the Nova Scotia Health Authority, the Provincial government, sector specific plans and the needs of the community accompanied by staffing capacities. The phases are assessed based on Provincial guidelines, best practices from local facilities, and staff feasibility to maintain all standards and guidelines required.

As Provincial standards change, this document may also adapt. Please be patient with us. We are all learning together the best way to re-open our community facility.
